WHAT ARE THE CONTRACTING AWARDS?

Contractors require a vast amount of services to help support their businesses. The Contracting Awards recognise and reward the exceptional contractor service providers who are going above and beyond to deliver excellence to their customers. The Contracting Awards recognise the businesses that are providing exceptional service. We believe that those that are leading the field deserve to be recognised for their contribution to the contracting industry and the UK economy.

THE EVENT

The event attracts over 500 guests and provides a fantastic networking platform and opportunity to learn and celebrate together at the prestigious Hilton Park Lane Hotel.

Celebrity presenters entertain the guests and host the awards with past names including Josh Widdicombe, Ed Byrne and Russell Kane. The event truly belongs to the industry with independent experts drawn from across the contracting spectrum making up a comprehensive judging and advisory panel.

The 2024 awards will be celebrated on the 13th November 2024 with a black-tie event at the Hilton Park Lane Hotel in London.

THE AUDIENCE

The audience includes CEO's, Senior Management, Directors as well as employees engaged in the contracting process. Companies include Accountants, Umbrella companies, Financial Services, Recruitment Agencies, Software companies, Suppliers and more. Attendees are not only there for the awards but to network, engage and learn. Attendees also noted the benefits of teambuilding on the night. The awards is the ultimate networking event in the contracting calendar.
